HERD ACTING? NO!

Because there are already enough pillow animals. Because I think that living outside the herd is not good, otherwise you become a paria. But once inside the herd, you need to differentiate as much as possible! Because I have enough of this colourless world, where mass consumption and brainless hypes are usually the standard. Many bleating and little wool. Because putting people inside a box destroys creativity. And just because it's in my genes to think critically and to find a different, better way.

SOCIAL LIFE

INTERMACTIVITY.BE

Administrator of the Flanders biggest online Apple community with a forum, news, events, live feeds, ... In 2018 this nice story came to an end, after many incredible years!

HARTBOVENHARD.BE

Volunteer for the local departement of Bruges, because in an honest (humane) world, little fish get fair chances too.

DAYOFDAYS.BE

Founding father of a travel group for the friends. Keywords are: camping, nature, World War I and II, gastronomy. The site is their virtual home, the tent or camper their real home!

REFERENCES

LUK DHONDT

TWIXL MEDIA

Having had Mika as a support engineer on our team for four years, I can vouch for his very structured approach to problem solving. He is very motivated in his continuous search for workflow improvement, and has been a joy to work with, both on a professional and a personal level.

KURT LEYBAERT

SAGAM NV / IGEPA BELUX

Mika is a reliable person, outstanding support engineer and who lives for the job. It was great working with him.

SCOTT CITRON

TWIXL MEDIA

I spent two days with Mikaël and found him to be an excellent teacher and communicator. Highly recommended!

RON DI TORRO

TWIXL MEDIA

Mika is an outstanding Application Support Engineer, regarding his intelligence, deep technical expertise, commitment to customer/partner success, and his unsurpassed work ethic. He's a superb, highly organized trainer, whose enthusiasm for our platform has been highly motivational for our partners. Mika consistently provides value well beyond his role, understanding the larger market, and suggesting strategies for success, both product and market-based. He's truly a critical member of our team here at Twixl media.

FREDERIK DE PAUW

INTERMACTIVITY.BE

I've always appreciated Mikaël's drive, his profound skills and his will to improve things for the online community we built.

It would not have grown and thrived the way it did without him.
